A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a small metal sieve, sifting a fine layer of white powdered sugar over a cardboard box filled with golden-brown Dutch mini pancakes. The scene is set on a wooden table. In the background, a brown paper cup filled with a white, frothy beverage is visible. In the foreground, a small white square dish contains a pat of yellow butter, and a small wooden stick rests on a white napkin. The overall atmosphere is warm and inviting, suggesting a cozy breakfast or snack.
